Catholic Education Week

Last week we celebrated Catholic Education Week. With this year's theme being "Communities of Faith, Hope and Love", I cannot think of a more life-giving and joyous theme to celebrate! Catholic Education Week is such a lovely opportunity to celebrate and enhance the reality of Catholic identity, to dialogue with the Catholic faith tradition and the world in which we live, to interpret and proclaim the good news. This has certainly been the cause for celebration with my Year 8 Religion class who were most excited to devote some of their time wool wrapping the fences at the offices of the Toowoomba Catholic Schools. The girls spread their woolen interpretations of faith, hope and love as you can see from the images below.

From the Religion Classroom

Year 11s had an educational day off campus attending the World Religion Symposium at UQ. This annual event provided girls with the experience of a lifetime, as the Professors, Lecturers and Researchers of the Arts Faculty shared their knowledge and wisdom of Religion, its History, achievements, advances and conflicts, through participating in a choice of six workshops. Big thanks to Adele and Chappy Cath for joining us! We sincerely thank Mrs Wade for always promoting exciting and meaningful curriculum enhancement opportunities for our Mercy Girls, and to Ms Collins for supporting a diverse and rich culture of learning at the College.

Salted Caramel Cookie Cups

Ingredients

- 24 Arnott's Choc Ripple biscuits
- 380g can Nestlé Top 'n' Fill Caramel
- Sea salt flakes, to serve

Step 1: Preheat oven to 180C/160C fan forced. Place a biscuit over 6 holes of a 12-hole patty pan. Bake for 2 minutes or until softened slightly. Use a teaspoon to carefully press biscuits into holes to form cups. Cool, then transfer to a wire rack. Repeat in 3 more batches.

Step 2: Place the caramel in a bowl and whisk until smooth. Divide among the cookie cups. Place in the fridge for 30 minutes or until firm.

Step 3: Sprinkle the cookie cups with a little salt just before serving.

Creator Spirit,

*All creation once declared your glory,
Your laws were honoured and trusted,
forgive us our neglect.*

*Listen to our prayer as we turn to you,
hear the cry of our land and its people,
just as you heard the cry of Jesus, your Son, on the Cross.
Help us to replace our national shame with true national pride by restoring the dignity of our First Peoples.*

*May our faith empower us to work for justice.
Only then will our nation grow strong and be a worthy place for all who wish to make their home in our land.*

Amen.

"The comfort comes soon after a well - received trial."

NAIDOC Week 2022

NAIDOC Week celebrations caused us all to Get Up! Stand Up! Show Up! and marked our first week's Funday Friday activities. This year's theme encourages all of us to champion institutional, structural, collaborative and cooperative change while celebrating those who have already driven and led change for First Nations communities. Our Mercy girls, especially those from remote Indigenous communities, were enthusiastic to share their artistic talent for face painting and creating dot dolls, in Dublin Place.

From our Chaplain

As St Saviour's College Chaplain one of the highlights on my week is sitting in classrooms with the girls and participating in what they are learning. Whether it is learning a new language from visiting Mrs Greenhalgh's Japanese lessons or joining in a game of Tea ball for PE with Mr Burley Year 7 girls, each visit creates opportunity for friendships to grow and to be strengthened. Something that I am daily reminded of how blessed I am to be in this role.

Having intentional moments of showing thankfulness towards the blessings that we have in our life helps us to cultivate an attitude of gratitude which further strengthens are connection with one another. This is something that I have been focusing on lately and have found that my relationships with people are strengthening as a connection has been made and reciprocated. What are you thankful for??
